

busworld.
academy

BUSWORLD ACADEMY WEBINAR

in partnership with

GLOBAL PASSENGER NETWORK (GPN)

Speaker's BIO

How can coach operators generate income and reduce costs during COVID-19?

Mohammed A Afzal
Chairman ABBE Group
Secretary General BOCI
(India)

Mark Anderson
Anderson Travel's CEO
(UK)

Trinh Gia Hien
Executive Assistant
@ HAIVAN Group
(Vietnam)

Luis Pedrero
Car Tour's CEO
(Spain)

Bronwyn Wilson
IMG's President
(US)

Thami Mourad
GM2 Tours's
Vice-President
(Morocco)

THURSDAY 23 APR 2020

6.00 am PDT | 3.00 pm CEST | 6.30 pm IST

busworld.
academy

KNOWLEDGE PLATFORM
FOR THE WORLDWIDE
BUS & COACH SECTOR

A Busworld Academy Webinar, in partnership with Global Passenger Network | free of charge, register at busworldacademy.org

Luis A. Pedrero

Luis is CEO at CAR TOUR, a motorcoach company based in Madrid, Spain, where he manages a fleet of over 50 vehicles and 70 employees.

Luis is also President of ANETRA, one of the two National Coach Associations in Spain, which cares for the interests of more than 900 small and medium motorcoach enterprises within the Spanish territory, representing them at the Spanish and European Transport Administrations. Besides, Luis is Past Chairman at the Global Passenger Network (GPN), where he served as president in the period Nov. 2011-March 2020.

luisangel@cartour.es

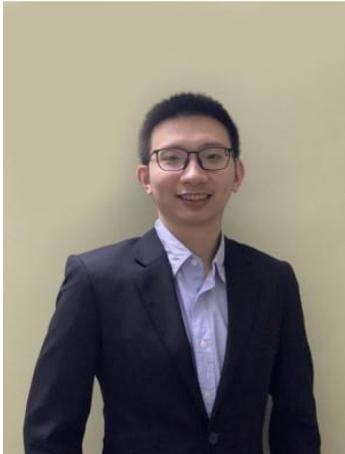

Mark Anderson

Mark Anderson is the Managing Director of London based Anderson Travel with operating centres at both Heathrow Airport and close to Tower Bridge in the central area of the City.

He started the business in 1988 with one coach he drove himself and now employs close to 100 staff with a fleet of over 40 vehicles, an inhouse excursion and tour programme, a private groups department and also specialises in the carriage of sports teams and their supporters. Last year Anderson Travel carried a massive one million passengers. Mark is a Director of the Global Passenger Network, is a member of the UK trade association The Confederation of Passenger Transport and a member of the Coach Marque Management Committee, the kite mark of quality for coach operation in the UK. Mark is also a part owner and Director of the local semi-professional football club in the area of South West London in which he lives.

Mark.Anderson@andersontravel.co.uk

Trinh Gia Hien

Hien Trinh is the executive assistant at HAIVAN group, a passenger transportation company based in Hanoi, Vietnam with more than 250 vehicles and almost 1000 employees. He is also the CEO of Havaz, a subsidiary technology company of HAIVAN group, in charge of researching, developing, and maintaining an enterprise resource planning software (ERP), digital sales and marketing channel.

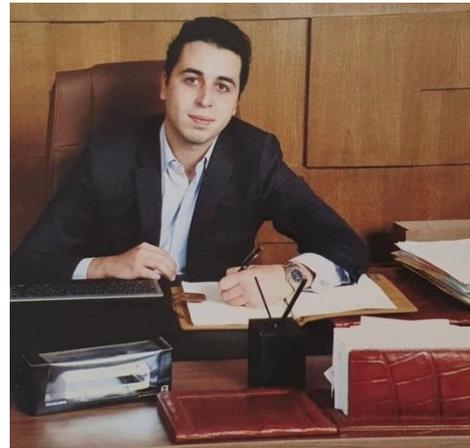

hien@haivantravel.com

Thami Mourad

Mr. Thami Mourad is GM2 Tours's Vice-President founded by his father in 2005. GM2 Tours is one of the biggest fleets in Morocco, operation in 3 different transport activities. After obtaining his engineering diploma in France and a master of science in engineering management in Hong Kong, M. Thami Mourad joined GM2 Tours. Accomplished and energetic analyst with a solid history of achievements, Mr. Thami Mourad is a motivated leader with strong organizational prioritization abilities. His focus is to use the latest technologies into transport activity to make GM2 Tours an even bigger brand than it is today.

Mr. Mourad is a member of the CRT (Regional Committee of Tourism), CGEM (General Confederation of Moroccan Enterprises), and elected member of CCIS (chamber of business industry and services of Fes-Meknes region).

t.mourad@gm2tours.ma

Bronwyn Wilson

Bronwyn is the President of the International Motorcoach Group (IMG), a private network of 55 motorcoach operators around North America. A seasoned industry professional Bronwyn had an extensive global career as a tour operator, in the Australian and North American markets. Leading IMG for over 8 years, Bronwyn has expanded the IMG footprint both in membership of leading motorcoach operators and as a preferred transportation provider for a variety of customers. Bronwyn also serves on the Board of GPN.

bwilson@imgcoach.com